| The Parable of Talents

The servant who received the five bags of silver began to invest the money and earned five more (25:16).

The servant who received the one bag of silver dug a hole in the ground and hid the master's money (25:18).

The master said, "Well done, my good and faithful servant. You have been faithful in handling this small amount, so now I will give you many more responsibilities. Let's celebrate together!" (25:21).

The servant who received the one bag of silver dug a hole in the ground and hid the master's money (25:18).

Then he ordered, "Take the money from this servant, and give it to the one with the ten bags of silver." (25:28)

"To those who use well what they are given, even more will be given, and they will have an abundance. But from those who do nothing, even what little they have will be taken away" (25:29).
